From Irene P. Hood's papers

George W. Britain and Betsy Ann Bailey Britain who were married in 1849, were among the early settlers in Pond Creek township, Greene County, Mo.

George W. Britain was about nine years old when John W. Britain brought his family from McMinn county Tennessee to Greene County, Missouri. At the age of 12 George W. was left an orphan and lived with Royal Hazelton near Brookline until he married Betsy Ann Bailey, whose family lived near or where the Wade Chapel cemetery is now. They bought 80 acres of land south of the cemetery and had a team of horses and a wagon to start out with. They first lived in a small log house and later built a large two story house, a barn and a granary. This was about two miles west of Republic where Shearl and Helen Britain Denny now live.

George W. and Betsy Ann reared eight children on this farm. They were Mark F., John Wesley, Eli. H, Aleck, Melissa Britain Hayes, Sarah Britain Gamble, Amanda Belle Britain Cox and Albert Britain. Mary Jane died at age 13. They also raised two or three of his brother's children. John Thomas and Sarah Jane were two of them. Their children all married and settled in and around Republic.

George W. Britain was one of the largest tax payers in Greene County and owned 1400 acres of land and had given his children more than 1000 acres. He was a self made man and was loved and respected by all who knew him. He was always ready to help the needy. Aunt Betsy Ann was known for many miles as the childrens doctor. She would put the side saddle on her grey mare and go in any kind of weather day or night to doctor a sick child with her home-made medicines.

Mark F. Britain married Mary Jackson and they raised 6 children on their farm northwest of Republic. All married and raised their families in and near Republic, but so far as is known the only descendant of theirs has remained in Republic all her life is her granddaughter, Pearl Payne. She has spent most of her life serving the public, first in Likins Dry Goods Store, then in Evans Market and now in the Farmers Exchange. Mark was sheriff of Pond Creek township for several years about about 1883. In later years he sold their farm and bought a farm near West Plains. When he got too old to take care of a farm he and his wife moved back to Republic and bought a small acreage and house on Elm Street, where they lived until their deaths.

John Wesley Britain and Lucy A. Cox Britain lived on a farm that his father gave him which was about three and a half or four miles northwest of Republic. They had three boys and one girl, when they left the farm and moved to Republic. Mr. Britain went into the mercantile business. He built a nine room, two story house on Main Street. There three children were born.

About 1900 or 1901 Mr. Britain sold his store to Mr. Goodwin and daughter Anna and Bob Thurman, who was working in the store took over the undertaking business. In 1902 John W. Britain was elected Representative from this district to the Missouri legislature. He had served as justice of the Peace for Pond Creek township while living on his farm before Republic was a town.

Eli H. Britain and Elizabeth Britain lived on the farm his father gave them one mile west of Republic, which is now the Russell Jones farm. They raised four children on this farm. He owned the brick yard on his farm that made the bricks for the Hood Methodist Church and many of the brick buildings on Main. Later he built a grocery store where the Farmers Exchange is now. He ran the grocery for a number of years then built a building where the city hall is and added a mercantile store. He and his oldest son ran the stores until E.H. decided to go into fruit growing, when he and his son, Ira, operated a large fruit farm. He died in the late 1920's and Aunt Lizzy, as she was known, died in the early 1930's.

Aleck Britain married Diane Sallee and five children were born. Alec learned to use the threshing machine on his father's farm; so he and Leir Sallee bought a thresher and cook shack and threshed wheat and oats all over Greene, Christian and Lawrence counties. He built a home on Walnut Street on the lot where the first canning factory stood.

Melissa Britain married George Hayes and they lived on the farm her father George W. Britain gave to her, they raised four children. This land belonged to all the Melissa Hayes heirs and their heirs. Nora, Ira, and Callie all had homes on this land.

Sarah Britain married James M. Cox and they lived on their farm after the birth of their first child, child, Ethel May. Jim and Amanda built a home on the east side of Main St. where Lester E. Cox was born. The only descendants left of this family live in Springfield. The late Lester E. Cox owned a large dairy farm near the southern edge of Republic.

Albert. the youngest child of George and Betsy Ann Britain, married Sarah Garrison and their home was about one and a half miles south of his fathers. They later moved out of the area, the only direct descendants of George W. and Betsy Ann Britain now living in Republic are Bettie Ann Britian, grandaughter and Helen Britain Denny, Stella Britain Wray, Pearl Payne great granddaughters, Lester Logan, Tim Tourville, Wayne and Sonny Blades, great grandsons. Jack and Robert Britain who live near Republic are grandsons of John Thomas Britain, whom George W. Britain reared.

James (called Uncle Jimmy) Britain, a brother to George W. Britain, lived on an adjoining farm and reared six children, who were Tom, Harvey, James, Henry, Martha Britain Butler, and Alice Britain White. Descendants of this family living in or near Republic are Lewis Martha and Nels Butler; Britain, son of Harvey; Floyd Britain, son of Jam and Frank Butler, son of es Britain; and E.L. Britain, son of Edward L. Britain.

This is a little history of the Britain clan that has helped to make Republic grow.

I would suggest that you send a list of the ones you are interested in and we can what we can find. The newspapers would most likely be on microfilm at the Springfield-Greene County Library. They are not a part of the Ozarks Genealogical Society's holdings. Sometime the microfilm is very very poor. The OGS has a research service, but only does research in the holdings of the Society. The Greene County Historical Society, of which I am also a member and the e-mail respondant, does try to help individuals with information. Their fee is postage and photocopy expense and a donation to their Endowment Fund. If you wish me to follow up on your query, use my personal e-mail address which is: hbarnett@mail.orion.org as I do not read the OGS or Historical Society e-mail box more than about once a week.

LEVI BRITTAIN

..... by Mrs. Kern Smith

Proof of names of parents has not been found, but circumstantial evidence indicates that his father was Nathaniel Brittain and that his mother was Elizabeth Parks.

Proof of birth and death dates are missing, but he was a grown man, paying taxes in Lee County, Va. in 1796. He signed a deed in Knox County, Kentucky on 29 Nov. 1836. Therefore we know that he was born about/by 1775 (or before) and that he died after 1836.

His wife Nancy Daniels gave her age as 80 in the 1860 census of Knox County, Ky. and she died in August of that year. Therefore her birthdate was 1780, birthplace South Carolina. Her first child was born in 1800, so, although we have not found a marriage record, we assume that she married Levi Brittain about 1799.

The above mentioned deed signed by Levi Brittain in the Knox County, Ky. Court House reads, Levi Brittain of McMinn Co., Tenn. What was he doing there? At that time in McMinn County there were Nathaniel Brittain, William Brittain, William C. Brittain who owned land and John Brittain who had no land but was of voting age (one white poll) This is the 1836 tax list.
There are no Brittains in the 1840 census.
There are no Brittains in the McMinn Co., Tenn. cemetery records.
There are no wills or estates of Brittains in McMinn County records.
The only early tax lists in McMinn County are 1829, 1830, 1831 and 1832 as well as the above mentioned 1836. Nathanial Brittain was taxed in each of these years with 160 acres of land and one white poll.
William Brittain was taxed each of these years with 224 acres of land and one white poll.
In the 1830 list besides William and Nathaniel there was John who had no land and William C. with no land but one white poll and one black poll. By 1831 William C. Brittain had acquired 80 acres. In 1832 he had only 70 acres.

The only marriage of Brittains in McMinn County, Tenn. is William C. to Jane Robison, 25 March 1847.

Levi and Nancy Daniels Brittain were parents of the following children:

1. Parks Daniels Brittain b. 1800 m. Martha Brafford 2 Nov. 1863 2. m. Malinda
2. William
3. Nathaniel born 1804 m. Margaret S. d. Pulaski Co., Mo 1855
4. James
5. Harrison

GEORGE W. BRITAIN.

This gentleman is the son of John and Catherine (Hensley) Britain, and was born in McMinn county, Tenn., June 20, 1827. His parents were natives of that State. His father was a soldier of the war of 1812, and his grandfather was a soldier in the Revolutionary war. In 1836 his parents moved to Greene county, Mo., where his mother died in 1837, and in 1838 his father moved to Bates county, Mo. In 1840 his father died, while on a trip back to this county, and George was left an orphan at the age of thirteen years. The children were brought back to this county, and George was bound out to Royal Hazelton, then of Brookline township. When twenty-one years of age he was offered eighty acres of land for one hundred dollars, which he took, and upon which he has since resided. He now owns over fourteen hundred acres of land, besides giving a thousand acres to his children. He is next to the largest farmer in the county, and the largest tax-payer in Pond Creek township. He is a liberal, enterprising citizen, and his hand is ever ready to help the deserving. Starting in life as a "bound-boy," his rise to wealth, position, and honorable and useful citizenship is almost without a parallel, and is a fine example to those who have energy and determination. During the war he served for a year in Capt. Redfearn's company of militia. He has been a member of the Methodist church for over thirty years. Mr. Britain was married in 1849 to Miss Betsy Ann, daughter of Alexander and Margaret Bailey, of this county, formerly of Tennessee. Their union has been blest with nine chilldren, eight of whom are living, viz.: Marcus F., John W., Eli H., Melissa A., James A., Sarah E., Albert A., and Amanda B.

WILLIAM B. GAROUTTE.

Mr. Garoutte is the son of James S. and Mary (Bobington) Garoutte, and was born in Washington county, Ohio, May 9, 1820. His grandfather was a French soldier, who settled at Tuckahoe, N. J., after the Revolutionary war was over. France sent some of her best sons to aid us in securing our independence, and many of them staid in America. In 1829 his parents moved to St. Joseph county, Indiana, and in February, 1830, his mother was frozen to death. She was an eminent practitioner in midwifery, and had gone nine miles to see a patient. She was caught in a snow storm, and it is supposed she dismounted to walk so as to keep warm, and her horse got away from her. She was found the next day dead. In 1837 he and his father came to Greene county, Mo., and settled in Pond Creek township. His father died in 1876. William went back to Indiana in 1848, and in 1849 went to California and returned in 1852, and has since resided in Greene county. He was elected justice of the peace when he was twenty-one years of age. In 1856 he was a candidate for the State Senate upon the Benton ticket, but was beaten by Judge Price by seventy-seven votes. In 1859 he was a candidate for Congress, and in 1882, he was a candidate for the Legislature upon the Democratic ticket, and though his district was Republican by three hundred majority, he reduced it to fifty-six. He was a Union man until the war actually came on, and then took the position that the Jackson troops were the law and authority troops. He was offered and refused a brigadier general's commission. In 1862 cast his fortunes with the Confederacy, and went South with Gen. Price. In the fall of 1862 he returned to Greene county, as provost marshal for the county, but was taken prisoner at his home before the Confederate troops arrived. He was taken to St. Louis, then to Johnson's Island, and from there to Fort McHenry, and held prisoner two years. Just before the war closed he was exchanged at Demopolis, Alabama, and sent by Gen. Hardee, with dispatches to Gen. Price in Arkansas. He was there when the war closed. He lost about twenty thousand dollars by the war, and has since labored to repair his losses. He owns over seven hundred acres of land. Mr. Garoutte is a Master Mason. He has been married twice, the first time to Miss Amelia, daughter of Royal and Mehitable (Arms) Hazelton, of this county. They were blest with five daughters. Mrs. Garoutte died April 7, 1857, and he was married the second time, October 15, 1857, to Miss Mehitable, daughter of Magruder and Theresa (Hazelton) Tannahill, also of Green County. They have by this union eight children.

they had not gone far when they heard the report of a revolver, and on arriving at her home, Mrs. Skelton found her husband a corpse, weltering in his blood, almost in his own doorway. Ever since Mrs Skelton has been partially deranged — and what wonder?

The same night that Joel Skelton was killed, Andrew Owen was inhumanly butchered, presumably by the same brutes that murdered Skelton. Two men came to Owen's house, called him out, shot him down, and rode way singing merrily.

Soon afterward, Richard Owen, a citizen of this township, was killed while on his way to Springfield by some Federals. Mr. Owen's son was driving the team and Mr. Owen himself was walking behind the wagon. Two soldiers rode past Mr. Owen and past the wagon, and then turned back and riding to where the unsuspecting man was walking along suddenly shot him dead.

A Union man named John Gower was murdered at his home by Confederate bushwackers in 1863.

In 1864 a young man named Lum. Johns, a nephew of Mrs. Towpley Rose, was visiting his aunt, was waylaid and killed. He was a Southern sympathizer.

In 1865, James Everhart, an ex-militiaman, was killed by Lieut. Harshbarger, of the 16th Mo. Cavalry, in Nathaniel Batson's door-yard, and was there buried. Everhart had won for himself the name of a horse thief, a robber and rascal. It was believed that the killing was authorized by Gen. Sanborn.

Comments: The first burial in Wade Chapel Cemetery was Nancy Hearn Wade who died 14 June 1854. She was the wife of James Wade, the Methodist Circuit Rider, who held services at the church. This church was later destroyed by fire probably during the Civil War.
The church and cemetery was part of a 40 acre tract of land owned by C.F. Dryden from 1839 until 1857. In 1857, Mr. Dryden sold the land to D.W. Burford and mention was made of a portion of land (11 poles by 14½ poles) at the west edge of the tract. This indicates that C.F. Dryden gave or sold the land for the church yard. In 1871, records indicate that George W. Britain acquired the property from George P. Roberts, "saving and excepting" a portion measuring 11 poles by 14½ poles.
During this time frequent reference was made to "THE BRITAIN GRAVEYARD" because he owned the adjoining tract of land. A deed in the Greene County Missouri Recorders Office, Deed Book 219, page 166 dated 10 November 1888 show grantors, Fred Ottendorf, and Elizabeth Ottendorf, his wife, to trustees of the Wade Chapel Church and burying grounds. Another deed for three acres more or less, with one acre off the south end to be used for the Union Church, was purchased from Ruby L. Britain, a single person, is in Deed Book 805, page 303 dated 25 May 1946, to trustees of Wade Chapel Cemetery and their successors.
This cemetery is partially fenced with a chain link fence, and has a wooden sign at the entrance, WADE CHAPEL 1854. It is well maintained and in use today.

Comments: In this cemetery only one stone was found. It was a tall sphere type stone. The inscription was partially buried. The property is now owned by descendants of Elisha DeBoard who purchased the farm from Nancy Small, wife of Henry Small, on 3 September 1896. The current owners of the cemetery said in accordance with Susie House's wishes, "her ashes were scattered on the hillside across the creek, to the south, overlooking the valley and her old home place."
